Ketzia Schoneberg

ABOUT US

Small Yellow Horses' museum quality, eco-friendly gift and paper products feature the vivid expressionist images of artist Ketzia Schoneberg. SYH was conceived on a long, rainy drive from Oregon to California several years ago, and began to ripen early in 2012. Our products are available through museum gift shops, galleries, nature centers, bookstores and natural food stores.

Small Yellow Horses is named after a painting by Franz Marc, an early twentieth-century German Expressionist member of the Fauve avant-garde art movement. Fauve means Wild Beasts in French, as the group's artists were known for creating works which emphasized wild, painterly brush strokes and strong, unconventional color. SYH's images are created with a nod to the Fauve aesthetic, and our flagship line of greeting cards and magnets feature that most primal and fundamental artist's subject, wild animals.

Visit us at www.SmallYellowHorses.com, and view Ketzia Schoneberg's original paintings at www.ketzia.com. We can be found on Facebook at www.facebook.com/smallyellowhorses. Small Yellow Horses is a family, woman and artist owned and operated company.
